INFORMATION

What is this permission for?

This Publication Permission Form authorises the Department (including schools, TAFE, the Young Scholars programming partners and other departmental organisations) and the State to use the Individual's copyright material, image, recording and name, together with information about the Individual's participation in Departmental and State initiatives, for any use by the Department and the State. The permission covers the entire or partial use of the Individual's copyright material, image, recording and name in conjunction with other words and images.

For example, the completed material can appear in school, TAFE and our programming partners newsletters, magazines, websites, electronic material and other publications, as well as in television advertising, videos, brochures, forms, public relations displays, annual reports, press advertising, internal documents such as manuals, websites, certificates, strategic plans, posters and promotional material and other materials produced by the Department or other State government departments. There may also be occasions on which the Department may approve the media, such as local newspapers and television, using information and material in relation to Individuals – for example, drama and musical performances, sports and prize giving.

The Department has specific policies and guidelines in relation to publication of student images on the Internet – such as the Web Publishing Guidelines and Publishing Student and Staff Information on School Web Sites. These policies and guidelines may be viewed at www.education.qld.gov.au

What is copyright material?

An Individual's copyright material may include written work (eg stories and poems), paintings, pictures, drawings, designs, photographs, videos, films, music, performance, recordings, computer programs, websites, sculptures, fashion, metal or wood works made by them or to which they contributed. In the case of students, it includes, but is not limited to, work that they create in the course of their studies during the time they are enrolled at a State school. These materials may form part of their academic assessment or be part of their studies generally and may attract copyright.

The Department understands that students and volunteers generally own the intellectual property rights in the material they create and that this Publication Permission Form is not meant to transfer those persons' ownership – simply that the Department and the State have permission to use the Individual's material for the purposes mentioned.

This Publication Permission Form does not provide for copyright permission in relation to copyright works an Individual creates in the course of employment (whether or not in normal work hours or using departmental facilities or equipment), as where copyright material is created by a State employee (teacher, teacher aide, school administrative staff, guidance officer and any other State employee) while performing their duties under the terms of their employment, the Copyright is owned by the State as the employer (section 35 Copyright Act 1968). There are limited exceptions to this where the employee has prior agreement from the employer.

Generally, the deciding factor is whether the employee is performing their official duties. In addition, section 176 of the Copyright Act applies where the work was created by or under the direction or control of the State. However, moral rights may still apply to copyright material created by an employee. The Queensland Public Sector Intellectual Property Guidelines provide further information on Intellectual Property. If as an employee you have any further queries about the ownership of the intellectual property in respect of the works you create you should contact the Legal Services Branch.

What is an image or recording?

In this Publication Permission Form, an image or recording includes photographs, videos, films, or sound recordings of the Individual.

What happens to the Publication Permission Form once it is completed and signed?

The Publication Permission Form is retained by the Department. The Individual or Signatory may request a copy of the signed form by contacting the Production Manager, Corporate Communication and Marketing.

What if I give my permission and later change my mind?

The permission will be in effect for the period described in Section 3 of the form. The permission can be modified or withdrawn at any time by writing to the Production Manager, Corporate Communication and Marketing. However, any changes will apply only from the date that the Department receives notice of any permission withdrawal. Any existing material will not be withdrawn from use if the Department or the State is currently using the material or where the Department or the State has entered into contractual obligations in relation to this material. In such cases the withdrawal will be effective after the Department or the State's use is complete or after the contractual obligations come to an end.
